Mackerel Notes.

At Rockport yesterday, sloop Lena May had 125 fresh mackerel; steamer Water Witch, 450; sloop Agawam, 100; sch. Carrie E., 100.

Quite a number of seiners made harbor at Boothbay yesterday afternoon.

Two hundred barrels of the fare of sch. Hattie L. Trask sold to Stanwood & Co. for $2300.

Sch. Nettie Franklin, Capt. Caboon, arrived this morning with a nice fare of 200 barrels of salt mackerel, 50 barrels of which are small fish.

Schs. Oliver Wendell Holmes, Nellie Dixon, Lucinda I. Lowell and George F. Edmunds took mackerel a few days ago off Isle au Haut.

The fare of sch. Nettie Franklin sold to S. H. Levins' Sons for a lump sum.

The fare of sch. Helen Miller Gould, all rimmed, sold to John Pew & Son at $13.25 per bbl.

MONSTER COD FARE.

Sch. Independence Has Biggest Salt Trip for Years.

Capt. Cusick's Pat Craft Certainly Well Christened.

Sch. Independence, Capt. Joseph V. Cusick, arrived from Grand Bank Sunday with the largest salt cod fare of the season and one of the largest brought in by a Gloucester vessel for years, it being the maiden trip of this splendid craft. When Capt. Cusick kept her off for home she was nearly full, so she has indeed been well christened, and will make one of the biggest maiden trips on record. The fare is estimated at 375,000 pounds of salt cod and may even exceed this figure.

The Independence sailed from here May 13, and has only been gone a little over four months. Capt. Cusick, who is well known as one of the smartest of the younger set of skippers, has always been halibuting since he commanded a craft, and that he should get such a monster fare on his maiden trip salt fishing speaks volumes for his ability as a master mariner and fisherman, and he well deserves the good words of commendation he is receiving on every hand.

Capt. Cusick has plenty of praise for his new craft, both as to speed, comfort and seaworthiness, and with his crew voices the sentiment that "they don't make them any better than the Independence."

Good Fares.

Sch. Kentucky, Capt. Elroy Prior, arrived from Western Bank this morning with a fine fare of 140,000 pounds of cod, 90,000 pounds of which are salt. Shackling or seining are all alike to Capt. Prior. He catches mackerel or cod with equal success.

Sch. Nereid, also from Western Bank, has a nice trip of 120,000 pounds of salt cod.

Sch. Tacoma, Capt. Daniel McDonald, has arrived from the Quero Bank with a splendid fare of 40,000 pounds of fresh halibut. This means a fine stock and share.

SPLENDID YEAR'S WORK.

Sch. Effie M. Morrissey, Capt. Joshua W. Stanley, Stocks $30,000.

Sch. Effie M. Morrissey, Capt. Joshua W. Stanley, on Wednesday settled up for a trip and completed an even year, and a most successful one for vessel, captain and crew.

From September 18, 1910, to September 18, 1911, the Morrissey made the magnificent stock of $30,000, the crew sharing $780. This is indeed a splendid record, and the crafts which excel or equal it are very few.

Capt. Stanley, though still a young man, has long been identified with the class of skippers known as "crack-a-jacks." Year after year he has always done well and his big record in the sch. Procyon, previous to his going in the Effie M. Morrissey, is well known. He is one of that steady, reliable class of men, who keep everlastingly at it and always have good returns to show for their labors at the end of the year.

Smoked Halibut Goes Up.

Many of the local fish concerns which ship fish were notified yesterday by one of the smoked halibut concerns that the price of smoked halibut would be increased 2 1-2 cents per pound, the rise to take effect at once.

Tuesday, Sept. 24. Wednesday, Sept. 25.

Mackerel Notes.

Sch. Northern Eagle was at Newport Sunday night and sailed Monday morning. Capt. McCloud saw one school of fish but it did not stay up long enough to get a set at.

The following boats were at New Bedford Monday with fare taken on the hook:

Sloop C. L. Payson, 1100 fresh mackerel.

Sloop Eclipse, 900 do.

Sloop Hersey D. Taylor, 1200 do.

Sloop Ralph, 1600 do.

Sloop Olga, 800 do.

Sloop Hester, 470 do.

All these fish were taken on the jig off Gay Head and the boats report seeing two good schools.

A large fleet of seiners harbored at Portland Sunday, among them being schs. Hattie M. Graham and Nourmahal. Many of the captains are looking for good fishing during October.

AT BOSTON.

Sch. Nellie Bly Has 200 Barrels Fresh Mackerel.

Sch. Nellie Bly arrived at Boston this morning with a fine fare of 200 barrels of fresh mackerel, taken yesterday in Boston Bay. The fish are mostly tinkers, about one-third of them going for mediums, and sold at six cents apiece right through to-day.

Big Stock.

Sch. Tacoma, Capt. Daniel McDonald, stocked $3830 on her recent halibut trip, the crew sharing $98.80. Capt. McDonald is doing well, as usual.

Halibut by Express.

Gardner & Parsons received by express from the Pacific coast yesterday, 4000 pounds of fresh Western halibut.

OFF HALIBUT POINT.

Mackerel Schooled at Sandown Last Evening.

Capt. Alex. Sargent of the steamer Water Witch, engaged in mackerel netting, arrived here this morning with 300 fresh mackerel. He reports that on Wednesday evening, just at sundown, he sighted six or seven good schools of mackerel northeast of Halibut Point. The schools stayed up well.

A letter to the TIMES from a reliable source at Gay Head confirm the exclusive report in the TIMES of September 18, of mackerel in Vineyard Sound and adds that nearly every day for the past fortnight boats of all sizes and descriptions, from the Devil's Bridge down the Sound as one could see from Gay Head, all "jigging" mackerel. Some are Gay Head boats and they have made good days' work. One afternoon recently just before sundown, three fine schools were seen two or three miles southwest of Gay Head and not a seiner in sight.

The fare of sch. Hattie M. Graham sold to John Pew & Son for $750.

Sch. Maud M. Story Arrives.

Sch. Maud M. Story, Capt. James Williams, is in from the Labrador coast this morning with 70,000 pounds of flitched halibut. The Mist is now the only ditcher to arrive and she was at Birchy Cove, recently.
